The Hamilton Carr Trail begins off Woods Road in Rockwoods Reservation, a state forest and wildlife conservation area that offers hiking trails, picnic areas, caves and interesting rock formations. The trail continues south along State Route 109, past the La Salle Retreat Center. After passing the campus, the trail enters a wooded area on its way to the shores of the Meramec River. At its southern end, the pathway connects with the Meramec Greenway Trail, taking travelers east through several parks.
