

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Poison Creek Trail

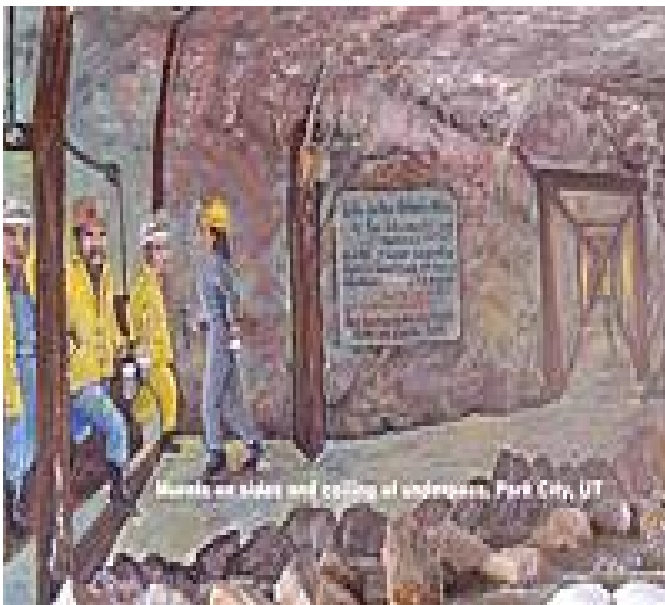

Utah

Poison Creek Trail

Utah

The Poison Creek Trail travels along the east side of City Park and into a historical area of Park City, originally a mining town. On this

The Poison Creek Trail travels along the east side of City Park and into a historical area of Park City, originally a mining town. On this urban pathway, trail-goers will pass an eclectic mix of athletic fields, sculptures, murals in one of several short tunnels, residences and historical sites. The route also provides access to many shops and restaurants, and connects to the 28-mile Historic Union Pacific Rail Trail State Park at its northern end.

Poison Creek Trail

Utah

States: Utah

Counties: Summit

Length: 1.4miles

Trail end points: Historic Union Pacific Rail Trail State Park at Bonanza Dr. to Ontario Ave. and SR 224

Trail surfaces: Asphalt, Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

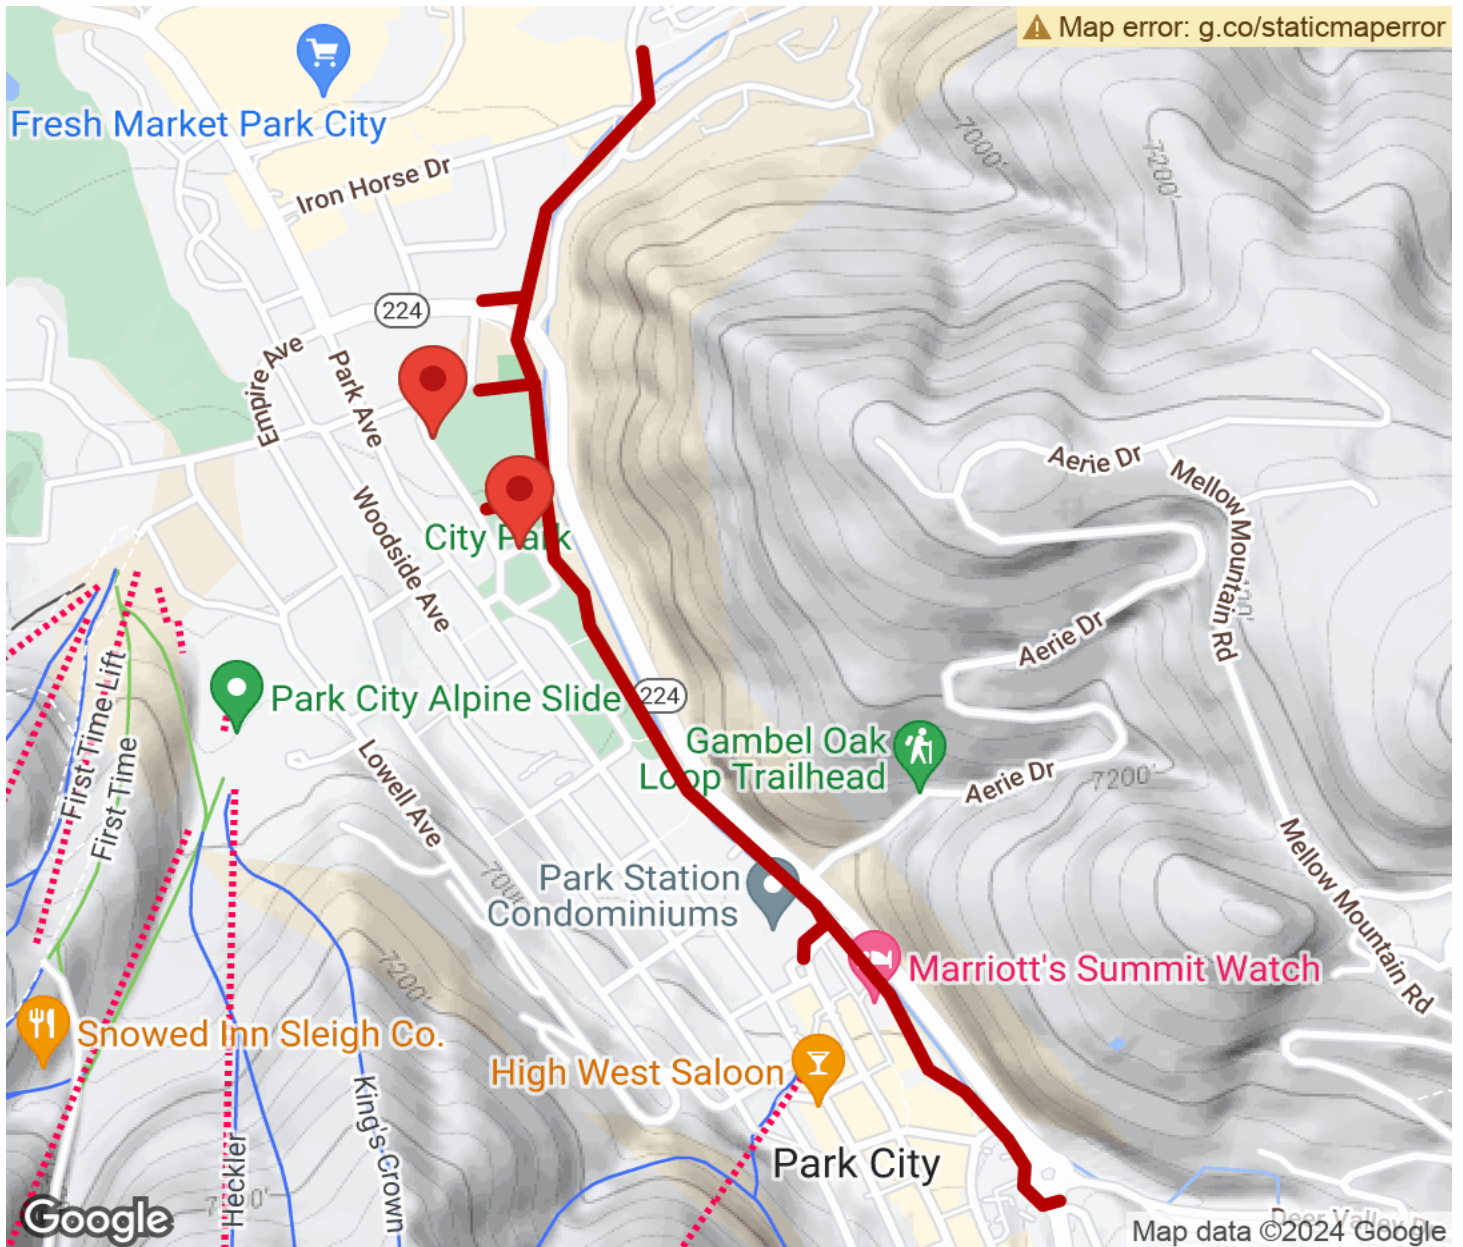

Parking & Trail Access

Parking and trail access are available at City Park (off Deer Valley Drive on Sullivan Road) and at the Historic Union Pacific Rail Trail State Park trailhead off Prospector Avenue.

Poison Creek Trail

Utah

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com