The Natalie Wheeler Trail provides a straight north-south route along Union Street/Westfield Boulevard in the Indianapolis metro

The Natalie Wheeler Trail provides a straight north-south route along Union Street/Westfield Boulevard in the Indianapolis metro area. Although it parallels the roadway, the trail's western side is pleasant and tree-lined. The pathway offers access to Liberty Park, a wooded wetland area, along the way and ends just north of Cool Creek Park, a beautiful and heavily forested 90-acre tract.
