Silent Grove Trail

Arkansas

The Silent Grove Trail runs through newer residential development from the Lowell–Springdale border in Northwest Arkansas to off-road, shared-use trail that extends from southeast Bella Vista to the southern edge of Fayetteville.

The Silent Grove Trail runs through newer residential development from the Lowell–Springdale border in Northwest Arkansas to scenic Lake Springdale, administered as part of Springdale's popular JB Hunt Park. The trail follows Silent Grove Road for its entire route (hence its name), including a stretch of sidewalk and wide protected bike lane between Eagle Crest Circle and Adel Avenue.

At the trail's southern end, pick up the Lake Springdale Trail for a scenic trek around the body of water. In the north, hop on the Goad Springs Trail to pass through Lowell and on to Rogers' trail network.

All three trails are also central components of the Razorback Regional Greenway, a 46-mile, primarily
