Rail 66 Country Trail

Pennsylvania

Paralleling PA-66, the Rail 66 Country Trail runs between Marianne in Clarion County and the county line with Forest the Clarion/Forest county line. The route passes by several railroad landmarks and points of interest, including the historic Lucinda Railway Station (1040 Lander Dr, Lucinda).

The northern endpoint is on Blood Road, off PA-66 in Vowinckel. Continuing seamlessly, the trail heads north to Marienville as Knox & Kane Rail Trail.

All 20.1 miles of the trail are paved and make for a smooth, enjoyable route that is accessible for those using mobility aids and easily navigable for families with strollers.

Paralleling PA-66, the Rail 66 Country Trail runs between Marianne in Clarion County and the county line with Forest County. This paved, multiuse rail-trail lies on the historic Knox-Kane railroad bed and is part of the Knox & Kane Rail Trail.

The trail's southern end is on PA-66/Paint Boulevard, just south of Pine Terrace Road in Paint Township in the borough of Shippenville. While it is possible to access the trail here, there is no parking and PA-66 is a fairly busy road. Parking and easier trail access is available at US-332 and Willow Lane—less than a mile along the trail from the southern endpoint on PA-66.

Heading north, the trail winds through Marianne, Lucinda, Snickersberg, Leeper, and Vowinckel to
